2004 Great Lakes Beach Association Annual Meeting

The Great Lakes Beach Association (GLBA) invites you to participate in the 4th annual Great Lakes Beach Association conference on recreational water quality November 30 - December 1, 2004. The Great Lakes Beach Association was founded in 2001 to bring together beach managers, scientists, agencies, officials and private groups to exchange information and improve recreational water quality. The annual meeting is an important means of achieving this goal. Conference registration is free and will be hosted this year by the Cuyahoga County Board of Health in Parma, Ohio. The location is 2 miles from the Cleveland-Hopkins International Airport. The conference will begin on November 30 with a poster session held from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m., followed by an informal networking dinner. The agenda for the December 1 meeting is as follows:

- 8:30 - 9:00 AM: Welcome, Michelle B. Gillcrist, Regional Director for The Honorable Mike DeWine, U.S. Senator for Ohio, and Dora Pruce, District Director for the Honorable George Voinovich, U.S. Senator for Ohio
- 9:00 - 9:15 AM: Update on Beach Act and National Beach Conference, Beth Leamond and Holly Wirick, USEPA
- 9:15-10:15 AM: State Beach Program Reports and Panel Discussion
- 10:15-10:45 AM: National Epidemiological and Environmental Assessment of Recreational Waters: Results of 2003 Summer Data Collection, Elizabeth Sams, USEPA
- 10:45-11:00 AM: Break
- 11:00-11:30 AM: Results of Microbial Source-Tracking Method Comparison Studies, Don Stoeckel, USGS
- 11:30-12:00 PM: Microbial Source Tracking -- New Approaches Being Tested, Jorge Santo Domingo, USEPA
- 12:00 - 1:00 PM: Lunch and business meeting
- 1:00 - 1:30 PM: Using a Public-Health Based Monitoring Program to Assess Recreational Water Quality Advisories and Initiate Remediation, Julie Kinzelman, City of Racine Health Department, Racine, WI
- 1:30 - 2:15 PM: Reducing the Sources: The Lake County, Illinois Experience, Mark Pfister, Lake County Health Department
Swimcast, Mark Pfister and Greg Olyphant, Indiana University
- 2:15 - 2:45 PM: Understanding General and Local Factors Affecting Recreational Water Quality of Southern Lake Michigan, Richard Whitman, USGS
