

Canadian Studies at Western Michigan University presents

SHARED WATERS: A SYMPOSIUM ON THE GREAT LAKES

and

The Great Lakes Close Up: Spirit and Science
An Exhibit of Great Lakes Photography and Research

14-15 September 2006 (Thursday-Friday)

at Fetzer Center and Waldo Library
Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan

FEATURING:

- Keynote talk by Jerry Dennis, award-winning author of The Living Great Lakes
- Symposium address by Dennis Schornack, Chair of the International Joint Commission—U.S. Section
- Presentations by Richard Corfe, President and CEO of the St. Lawrence Seaway Management Corporation; Ken Debeaussaert, Director of the Office of the Great Lakes; Christiane Hudon, Environment Canada—St. Lawrence Center
- Exhibit opening and reception
- Special Sessions for WMU students

All events are free. Unless noted, they are open to the public.

international.wmich.edu/canadianstudies

Canadian Studies office: 269-387-4666

Dr. Lynne Heasley, Symposium Coordinator: 269-387-2778

Dr. Nora Faires, Chair, Canadian Studies Initiative: 269-387-5375

shared-waters@wmich.edu

Wednesday, 13 September

*Times tba Pre-Symposium Sessions on Environmental Journalism (Invitational for WMU Students)

Sponsored by the School of Communication

Mark Brush (invited)

Editor and technical director, Great Lakes Radio Consortium

Thursday, 14 September at Fetzer

10:00-12:00 Opening Plenary: The Great Lakes Across Borders Political, Scientific, and Engineering Perspectives

Sponsored by the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences

10:00 Welcome and Introductions

Tim Greene

Dean, College of Engineering and Applied Sciences

Nora Faires

Chair, Canadian Studies Initiative, Associate Professor of History

10:15 Ken Debeaussaert,

Director, Office of the Great Lakes, U.S. Department of Environmental Quality

10:40 Roger Gauthier

Program Manager, Great Lakes Commission

Interim Executive Director, Great Lakes Observing System

11:05 James R. Nicholas

Director, Michigan Water Science Center, U.S. Geological Survey

1:00-4:00 The St. Lawrence—Gateway to the Great Lakes

Sponsored by the Haworth College of Business

1:00 Welcome and Introductions

David Shields

Dean, Haworth College of Business

Vincent Desroches

Associate Professor of Foreign Language, Canadian Studies Initiative

1:15 The St. Lawrence River: A Flowing Ecosystem through Time

Christiane Hudon

Environment Canada—St. Lawrence Center

2:00 Shared Waters, Shared Successes: The Seaway Playing Its Part

Richard Corfe

President and CEO, St. Lawrence Seaway Management Corporation

3:00 A Québec Perspective

Michel Lafleur, Québec Government Representative for the Midwest

4:30-6:30 Art and Place: A Session with Ed Wargin (Invitational for WMU students)

Sponsored by Lee Honors College; located at Lee Honors College Lounge

- 4:30 Introductions
Larry tenHarmsel
Dean, Lee Honors College
- 4:45 Presentation and Activities
- 6:00 Pizza for participants

7:00-8:30 Keynote Speaker: Jerry Dennis

Award-winning author of The Living Great Lakes

Sponsored by Students for a Sustainable Earth

- 7:00 Welcome and Introductions
Lynne Heasley
Symposium Coordinator, Canadian Studies Initiative
Associate Professor of History and Environmental Studies
Michael Chiarappa
Associate Professor of History and Environmental Studies
- 8:15 Reception

Friday, 15 September at Fetzer

- 8:30-9:00 Coffee and Conversation

9:00-11:45 The Great Lakes Environment

Sponsored by Geosciences, Biological Sciences, and Political Science

- 9:00 Welcome and Introductions
Tom Kent
Dean, College of Arts and Sciences
Steve Kohler
Director, Environmental Studies Program
- 9:15 Circulation Modeling to Support Great Lakes Decision Making:
Case Studies in Algae Blooms and PCB Contamination
Joseph Atkinson
Director, Great Lakes Program, University at Buffalo,
Department of Civil, Structural, and Environmental Engineering
- 10:00 Aquatic Invasive Species: Trends and Challenges
David Raikow
Great Lakes Environmental Research Lab and NOAA National Center for Research on Aquatic Invasive Species
- 11:00 Policy Frameworks for Great Lakes Environmental Problems
Mary Durfee
Associate Provost and Professor of Political Science
Michigan Technological University

12:00-1:15 Luncheon reception for presenters and sponsors (invitational)

12:00 Welcome
Diether Haenicke
President, Western Michigan University
Janet Pisaneschi
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

1:15-2:15 Symposium Address: *Binational Management of the Great Lakes
Dennis Schornack
Chair of International Joint Commission—U.S. section
Sponsored by the Department of Geography

1:15 Welcome and Introductions
Janet Pisaneschi
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
Chansheng He
Professor, Department of Geography

2:30-4:00 Research Opportunities to Study and Protect the Great Lakes:
Roundtable Discussion with Symposium Presenters and Faculty

Moderators:
Steve Kohler, Director, Environmental Studies Program
John Patten (to be invited), Chair, Manufacturing Engineering
Kristin Szylvian, Associate Professor of History
Concluding Remarks:
Michael Chiarappa
Associate Professor of History and Environmental Studies

4:00 Adjourn; reconvene at Waldo Library

The Great Lakes Close Up: Spirit and Science

at Waldo Library
Exhibit Space and Meader Rare Book Room

4:30-6:30 Reception for *The Great Lakes Close Up: Spirit and Science
Exhibit of Great Lakes photography and research
Sponsored by University Libraries, College of Arts and Sciences, and the Environmental Studies Program

4:45-5:00 Slide presentation by artists John and Ann Mahan (seating limited)

5:15 Opening Ceremonies
Janet Pisaneschi
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
Joe Reish
Dean, University Libraries

5:30

Welcome of artists

David Lubbers, whose books include Abiding: Landscape of the Soul and Persistence of Vision.

John and Ann Mahan, whose books include award winning Lake Superior: Story and Spirit and The Northern Lights: Lighthouses of the Upper Great Lakes.

Joanie and Gary McGuffin, whose books include Where Rivers Run: A 6,000-Mile Exploration of Canada By Canoe and Superior: Journeys on an Inland Sea.

Ken Scott, whose books include Leelanau and Up North in Michigan.

Ed Wargin, whose books include Legends of Light: A Michigan Lighthouse Portfolio, a Library of Michigan Notable Book.

Co-Sponsored by the Western Michigan University Offices and Departments of

Biological Sciences • College of Arts and Sciences
College of Engineering and Applied Sciences
Environmental Institute • Environmental Studies
Geography • Geosciences
Diether H. Haenicke Institute for Global Education
Haworth College of Business • History • Lee Honors College
Political Science • School of Communication
Students for a Sustainable Earth • University Libraries

and

Government of Canada • Government of Québec